

Northmont Marching Band places second at William Mason Invitational

Under a crisp night sky, Northmont High School's Marching Band was able to bring home a second place finish in Class AAA at the William Mason Invitational on Saturday, October 24.

In competition with six other bands in that class, Northmont played its 2009 show entitled "OVERTure" which features four well-known overtures including Wagner's Rienzi, Barber's School for Scandal, Rossini's Barber of Seville and Bjork's Dancer in the Dark.

Northmont will compete again this Saturday at the Centerville Invitational at 4:00 p.m. Upcoming competitions include Mid-States Championships in Mason, Ohio on November 7 and Bands of America Grand Nationals on November 13 and 14 in Indianapolis.
